
TOPIC – FAMILY AND COMMUNITY

MCQs (1m each = 2m)

1. b) Grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins live together
2. c) Helping each other and following rules

B. Very Short Answer (1m each = 2m)

1. A nuclear family is a small family with parents and children only.
2. Children should respect elders / help in household work / study regularly (any one).

C. Short Answer (2m each = 4m)

1. Advantages of joint family:

Shared responsibilities

Emotional and financial support

2. Roles of community helpers:

Doctors treat patients

Teachers educate children (any two).

D. Short Answer (3m each = 6m)

1. Joint family: large, includes grandparents, uncles, cousins; shared duties.

Nuclear family: small, only parents and children; more independence.

2. Parents: provide food, shelter, education, guidance.

Children: respect elders, obey rules, help in family work.

E. Case Studies (3m each = 6m)

Case Study 1:

(a) Unity, cooperation, teamwork (1m)

(b) Cooperation helps solve problems and complete tasks easily (1m)

(c) Helping in decoration/participating actively (1m)

Case Study 2:

(a) Nuclear family and Joint family (1m)

(b) More privacy, independence, easy decision-making (1m)

(c) Shared responsibilities, emotional support, learning from elders (1m)

