
TOPIC – FAMILY AND COMMUNITY

A. Multiple Choice Questions (1 mark × 2 = 2 marks)

1. Which of the following is a feature of a joint family?
 - a) Only parents and children live together
 - b) Grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins live together
 - c) People live alone
 - d) Family members live in different cities

2. Which responsibility is most important for members of a community?
 - a) Taking care only of their own needs
 - b) Ignoring rules
 - c) Helping each other and following rules
 - d) Avoiding social activities

B. Very Short Answer Questions (1 mark × 2 = 2 marks)

1. Define a nuclear family.
2. Write one responsibility of children in a family.

C. Short Answer Questions (2 marks × 2 = 4 marks)

1. Mention two advantages of living in a joint family.
2. Write any two roles of community helpers in our society.

D. Short Answer Questions (3 marks × 2 = 6 marks)

1. Explain the differences between a joint family and a nuclear family.
2. What are the responsibilities of parents and children in a family?

E. Case Study Questions (3 marks + 3 marks = 6 marks)

Case Study 1:

In a small town, all families come together to celebrate a festival. Everyone contributes money and helps in arrangements. Children decorate the place, elders guide the preparations, and women prepare food.

- (a) What values are shown in this community activity? (1m)

(b) Why is cooperation important in a community? (1m)

(c) Give one responsibility of children in such community work. (1m)

Case Study 2:

Sita lives with her parents and younger brother in a flat. Her grandparents live in another city. Her mother says that this is a nuclear family. When they visit their grandparents and uncles, they live in a joint family.

(a) Name the two types of families described. (1m)

(b) Mention one advantage of living in a nuclear family. (1m)

(c) Mention one advantage of living in a joint family. (1m)